

Convention on the Conservation of Migratory Species of Wild Animals

FORMAT FOR NATIONAL REPORT OF PARTIES ON THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE CONVENTION ON THE CONSERVATION OF MIGRATORY SPECIES OF WILD ANIMALS

Reporting format agreed by the Standing Committee at its 32nd Meeting (Bonn, November 2007) for mandatory use by Parties, for reports submitted to the Tenth Meeting of the Conference of the Parties (COP10) (Norway, 2011).

The questions below combine elements of Resolution 4.1 (Party Reports) adopted by the Fourth Meeting of the Conference of the Parties (Nairobi, June 1994) and Resolution 6.4 (Strategic Plan for the Convention on Migratory Species 2000-2005), adopted by the Sixth Meeting of the Conference of the Parties (Cape Town, November 1999), the COP8 Strategic Plan 2006-2011 and Resolution 8.24 adopted by the Conference of the Parties (Nairobi 2005), as well as commitments arising from other operational Resolutions and Recommendations of the Conference of the Parties.

COP Resolution 9.4 adopted at Rome called upon the Secretariats and Parties of CMS Agreements to collaborate in the implementation and harmonization of online reporting implementation. If the development of an online reporting system advances sufficiently, Parties may have the option of reporting in this manner. There are however no guarantees at this stage that this will be the case.

Parties are encouraged to respond to all questions. Parties are also requested to provide comprehensive answers, including, where appropriate, a summary of activities, information on factors limiting action and details of any assistance required.

Special attention is given to the problem of electrocution of birds on electric poles of 22 kV power lines. Slovak Ornithological Society/BirdLife Slovakia (SOS) is NGO which participates in: research concerning the ecology and population trends of endangered bird species and their habitats; restoration of habitats suitable for endangered species, preparation and undertaking of awareness campaigns for the specific groups and stake-holders (hunters, land owners); environmental education at schools. Slovak Bat Conservation Society (SON): is a non-governmental organization focused on protection and research of bats and their habitats in Slovakia. It was established in 1993 and has around 40 professional and amateur bat specialists. Main part of conservation activities is bat monitoring, management of roost for house-dwelling bats and resolving of conflicts caused by bats in human settlements. Members conduct lectures and education activities for public. 5	Describe any involvement of the private sector in the conservation of migratory species in your country: Slovenská elektrizačná prenosová sústava a.s. (Slovak Electricity Transmission System, Plc.) and regional energy production and distribution companies (Western, Central and Eastern Slovakian) – cooperation in protection of birds along electric lines.
6	Note any interactions between these sectors in the conservation of migratory species in your country: According to the Act on nature and landscape protection 543/2002 there is an obligation of the companies and individuals to use such a technological solution during construction or reconstruction of electric lines, which prevents bird kills. But moreover, these companies work in many cases voluntarily management activities, which are more than obligation.

It included activities – monitoring of the population, creating a protected zone around each active nest to eliminate disturbance. The population was watched year by year, in the nest the chicks were ringed, micro chipped and blood samples were taken. As nest robbery is affecting breeding success markedly, the most endangered pairs were guarded. Satellite and radio telemetry was used, with the aim to get data about eagles occurrence, their migration routes and habitat preferences. Other activity was focused on evaluation of habitat quality in relation to land-use practices. Artificial nests were installed and natural nests were reconstructed where needed. The mortality of birds was regularly monitored along dangerous power lines during the whole project, deterrents and barriers were designed to prevent the electrocution of the birds were installed at the most dangerous power lines. The capture and reintroduction of suslik as food source was implemented on suitable sites. During the entire project special attention was given to the public awareness and dissemination of the project's aims and results.

This project was focused on habitat conservation measures in two sites identified as Special Protection Areas under the Birds Directive. Project included elaboration of strategic documents namely management plans for Sysľovské polia and Lehnice SPAs, agri-environmental scheme for Otis tarda, strategies for farmers and hunters to reduce mortality and avoid disturbance. Within the project a value was added to all the strategic documents by implementation of practical activities fulfilling the strategies. In relation to the strategies for farmers and hunters, agricultural measures were taken to improve accessibility of food in winter to reduce starvation and hunting restrictions were made to prevent hunting in breeding season and to control predators to reduce mortality of individuals. The agri-environmental scheme was implemented and tested within the project to provide a cost-effective incentive for farmers to apply the proper land use techniques. To ensure maintaining of favourable habitat conditions in the most effective way, the land in core parts of SPAs was purchased/leased and the grasslands providing suitable feeding basis and breeding sites were restored. To ensure proper long-term agricultural utilization of the sites, the equipment for land management was purchased. In the areas which can not be converted into grasslands or which are private, suitable crop structure and proper agricultural techniques were negotiated and implemented by land users. Windbreaks at the target localities were restored with regards to Otis tarda requirements and with respect to biological needs of other SPA qualifying species. Warning marks and insulators were installed on power lines in SPA Lehnice to prevent mortality resulting from the collisions. To avoid disturbance and to improve local public attitude to the target species, infrastructure improving protection of sites and their accessibility to public was installed.
